

Britney Clark Board Certified in Estate Planning and Probate by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization

Dallas, Texas, January 13, 2025 – Wick Phillips Estate Planning partner Britney Clark is now one of only 672 Board Certified Estate Planning and Probate lawyers in the State of Texas.

Britney is a partner in the firm’s tax and estate planning section. Her practice focuses primarily on complex estate and income tax matters, wealth transfer, and business succession planning. She also provides counsel on estate and trust administration matters, preparation and negotiation of premarital agreements, real estate transactions, trust modifications, and entity selection and formation. A Certified Financial Planner™ (CFP), Britney works with clients and their advisors to provide a customized and holistic approach to the wealth transfer planning process.

The Texas Board of Legal Specialization describes Estate Planning and Probate Law as involving “issues related to conserving and protecting property through wills and trusts, transferring property through gifts and wills...minimizing taxes on estates and more,” as estate planning and probate lawyers are “involved in a wide range of services, from consulting to advising clients regarding estate planning.” Standards for attorney certification are to recognize those attorneys having special competence in a specialty area and include an evaluation of attorney experience, as well as a rigorous application and testing process.
