Michael Baum is a seasoned trial lawyer specializing in employment and commercial litigation, with a particular emphasis on disputes involving breach of fiduciary duties, partnership disputes, fraud, breach of contract, executive terminations, non-competition and employment agreements, theft of trade secrets, and tortious interference with contracts. A respected courtroom advocate, Michael has served as the Chair of the Dallas Bar Association's Judiciary Committee since 2023.

Michael is frequently consulted by employers and executives on a wide range of matters, including employee discipline, employment investigations, and strategic employment decisions. He represents parties in employment related matters in both state and federal court based on wrongful termination and discrimination in the workplace (age, race, gender, pregnancy, national origin, religion and disability); claims of unpaid overtime under the Fair Labor Standards Act; and cases involving alleged violations of the Family Medical Leave Act.

Michael has extensive jury trial experience and has successfully arbitrated numerous employment related cases. Some of Michael's noteworthy cases include:

- After obtaining temporary injunctive relief, successfully obtained a favorable settlement for The Expo Group in a case involving breach of a non-compete agreement.
- Successfully obtained summary judgment for American Airlines, Inc. in an alleged wrongful termination case involving claims of age discrimination and retaliation. Detra Barrett v. American Airlines, Inc.
- Successfully defended Nordstrom in a case involving claims of ADA discrimination and FMLA retaliation. Following a four-day arbitration, obtained an award of zero damages.
- Following a four-day arbitration, obtained a take nothing judgment for Omni Hotels in a suit alleging wrongful termination of an employee on the basis of race.
- Successfully defended Montronics (n/k/a Brinks) in a case involving claims of sexual harassment and retaliation. Following a three-day arbitration, the arbitrator awarded zero damages.
- The successful representation of a travel club in the Western District of Missouri in a class and collective action suit involving claims of unpaid overtime under the Fair Labor Standards Act and Missouri state wage laws.
- Successfully defended, in a case tried to a jury verdict, CSM Global in a Sabine Pilot action.
- In a case tried to jury verdict, successfully defended an aluminum extrusion company accused of wrongfully terminating an employee under Sabine Pilot.

- On behalf of Twelve Oaks Management, Inc., obtained summary judgment in a case involving claims of pregnancy discrimination.
